

Lesson 14 =id Vocabulary

Last time we talked about the Conjunctions and said that the article ovoh is used to join sentences and verbs, but the article nem is used to join adjectives and nouns. Let's look at some passages used in our church and notice the use of these conjunctions and also learn some new vocabulary:

From the First Hos (Canticle):

Tote a4hwc `nge Mwic3c nem nen23ri `mpiIcra3l

Then he praised Moses and the sons of Israel

etaihwdi `nte `Psoic ovoh a4goc e0rovogoc with this song of the Lord and (he)said [to say]:*

ge marenhwc `ePsoic ge qen ovwov jar a4siwov.

let us praise the Lord: for with glory he took glory.

* He (Moses) sang and said the song to lead the children of Israel [to say].

The Introduction to the Gospel said by the priest:

Pensoic-penu- ovoh pennov5 ovoh penovro t3ren

Our Lord and our God and our savior and our King all

I3covc Pixrictoc-I=3=c P=x=c - `p23ri `m`Fnov5-`mF5- etonq

Jesus Christ the son of God the Living

piwov na4 2a `eneh

the Glory to Him for ever.
